GENERAL CONDITIONS OF SALE

Provisional reservations can be accepted. A 50% deposit is required in order to guarantee reservations. The down payment must be made immediately or within 5 days after the date of acceptance of the reservation request. In case of non-payment, the reservation may be cancelled after this period.

All reservations previously confirmed and with a booking code given by Orbitur are held until 7 p.m. on the expected day of arrival. In case of no-show until the estimated time of arrival and without any notice, Orbitur will assume the availability for the whole reservation period, for a possible rental.

In the case of a cancellation with a request for refund (in writing), Orbitur is entitled to retain, at least, €15 (fifteen Euro), for expenses. For confirmed reservations regarding stay periods between 1 June and 30 September and festivities (such as Holidays, Carnival, Easter and New Year's Eve), the minimum retention payment or the following payments will apply:

25%: between 59 and 30 days prior to arrival / 75% will be refunded to the client
50%: between 29 and 15 days prior to arrival / 50% will be refunded to the client

Therefore, during these periods, for less than 15 days from the arrival date or in case of a postponed arrival or an earlier departure, no refund will be made.

Requests for any changes to a previously confirmed reservation, in particular regarding the name the reservation is made under, the change of reservation dates or the change of unit in the Orbitur network, are conditioned to the acceptance of Orbitur and whenever possible always subject to €10 (ten Euro) fee for each situation.

In case of early check-in or late check-out in relation to a fixed schedule and subject to the management, a €10 (ten Euro) supplement per situation may be charged.

Orbitur Camping Club Members are generally entitled to specific benefits which must be duly disclosed, except in case of loss of this right due to any non-compliance, as well as in case of specific contracts and/or other advantageous offers, if they meet all the requirements for this purpose. By principle a discount cannot be combined with any other discounts, including OCC discount. No discounts or price increase are applied to unoccupied equipment.
